

The 2nd Ostrava Onomastic Meeting
EVENT 2018

23–24 April, 2018

The OOME programme

Monday, 23 April 2018
8:30–10:00 Registration
9:30 Opening speech
10:00–12:00 Session 1
10:00–10:30	Terhi Ainiala (Helsinki)	Street names in Helsinki: reflections on ideological and linguistic changes
10:30–11:00	Michal Místecký (Ostrava)	Political colonization quantified: urbanonymy landscape seen as a network of street-sign posts
11:00–11:30	Sergey Goryaev (Ekaterinburg) Roman Razumov (Yaroslavl)	Church names in the urban toponymy (on Russian materials)
11:30–12:00	Michal Orleanski (Warszaw)	Political changes and naming of public spaces in Polish towns 1989–2017
12:00–13:30 Lunch break
13:30–14:00 Cake and coffee
14:00–16:00 Session 2
14:00–14:30	Václav Lábus (Liberec)	Klingerova díra, or Zvonkové údolí? Some remarks on Bohemization of German place names
14:30–15:00	Tereza Klemensová (Ostrava)	Böhmisch Gasse, Schillerstrasse, Titova, Školní – one street, many names. urbanonymy in the Czech borderlands during 20th century.
15:00–15:30	Roberto Fontanot (Trieste)	The Italianization of place names in occupied Yugoslavia during WWII
15:30–16:00	Justyna Walkowiak (Poznań)	Names as covert affirmation of identity: on some propagandistic urbanonyms of the post-war Western Borderlands in Poland
16:00–16:30 Cake and coffee
16:30–18:00 Session 3
16:30–17:00	Karel Střelec (Ostrava)	Stalingrad Pub or Hitler's? Representation of ideological changes of toponyms in contemporary Czech literature
17:00–17:30	Jana Davidová Glogarová Jaroslav David (Ostrava)	Thematization of place names in Czech opinion journalism
17:30–18:00	Žaneta Dvořáková (Prague)	Polná – a toponym that became a symbol
18:30 Onomastic party

Tuesday, 24 April 2018
9:00–11:00 Session 1
9:00–9:30	Aleh Kopach (Minsk)	Belarusian policy on geographical naming: saving the Post-Soviet past or promoting the national future?
9:30–10:00	Vladislav Alpatov (Moscow)	New Routine vs Cambridge: values in desiderative place-names in Soviet and Post-Soviet Russia
10:00–10:30	Liudmyla Kravchenko (Kyiv)	Renaming in the modern Ukrainian urbanonymicon
10:30–11:00	Ágnes Eröss (Budapest)	The relevance of locality in the politics of place naming: the case of Berehove, a multiethnic border town
11:00–11:30 Cake and coffee
11:30–13:00 Session 2
11:30–12:00	Gabriel Rožai (Banská Bystrica)	Regional speleonymy from the viewpoint of ethnic and lingual contacts (with examples of speleonyms in the Slovak Karst)
12:00–12:30	Pavel Štěpán (Prague)	Collectivization and nationalization of agriculture in Czechoslovakia: changes of rural landscape – and namescape?
12:30–13:00	Marzena Żemejda-Zybura (Częstochowa)	History of the Kruszyna commune community closed in field names
13:00–14:00 Lunch break
14:00–14:30 Cake and coffee
14:30–16:30 Session 3
14:30–15:00	Christian Zschieschang (Leipzig)	Place names between three languages. the Sorbian, German and Polish toponymies of eastern Lusatia
15:00–15:30	Přemysl Mácha (Ostrava)	Identity, ethnicity and place names in the Czech-Polish borderlands
15:30–16:00	Patrik Tátrai Ágnes Eröss (Budapest)	Contested toponymy: linguistic landscapes in multi-ethnic areas in Central and Eastern Europe
16:00–16:30	Olga Chesnokova (Moscow)	Basque toponymy of Spanish-speaking Latin America
16:30–16:45 Closing
17:30 Dolní Vítkovice open air technical museum – Bolt Tower & Café tour		